D.O. No. CH 1233

My dear Shri Medapa,

I am writing this in connection with the postings of District Judges. It has been found necessary and desirable to post Shri B.S. Puttaswamy, First Class District Judge, who is now the Law Secretary as acting Commissioner for Labour. He will be treated as on other duty keeping his lien in the Judiciary. Consequent to this, it is proposed to post Shri Jaya Rao as Law Secretary. Further postings necessitated by the proposals mooted above, if accepted, may please be considered later. I have certain further proposals to make in relation to the postings of District Judges. I shall do so after my return from Delhi. I shall be grateful if you will please accord your concurrence to the postings of Shris B.S. Puttaswamy and Jaya Rao as proposed above.

I shall be grateful for an immediate reply.

(K.C. REDDY.)

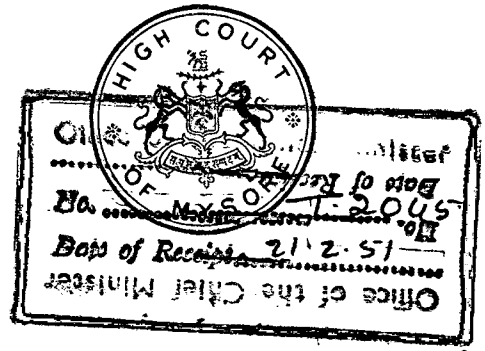
R.O.C 1112/50-51



BANGALORE

Dated 13th February 1951

My dear Sri Chengalaraya Reddy

With reference to your D.O. letter No. CH 1233, dated 9th February 1951, I write to say that the High Court has already intimated in Registrar's letter, dated 8th February 1951, to the Chief Secretary its concurrence to the posting of Sri B.S. Puttaswamy as Commissioner of Labour. As regards the proposal to post Sri N.R. Jaya Rao as Law Secretary, I write to state that the High Court is in agreement with the proposal.

Yours sincerely
Puttaswamy
